

No Crying

Islands

I walk right in
I sat right down
Listenin' to the saddest song
If I don't feel bad is there something wrong

I sympathize
I synthesized
A teardrop from my tired eyes
But I don't feel sad
And I cannot cry

And I won't cry for you
'Cause I'm not able to
She said I don't mind
Instead think of why

The chorus wept
The bridge caved in
The verses stung your perfect skin
But I don't feel like
It's touched my soul

So I climbed right in Listenin'
I got so close you'd think I'd been
Haunted by the teary eye

But I won't cry for you
'Cause I'm not able to
She said I don't mind
Instead think of why

I heard your voice sing just one note
The sweetest sound came from your throat
And I think I'll cry just a little while
