

Oh Maria

Islands

Oh Maria

Oh Maria is in the pasture
with all the people
running past her

She said if every day's a holy day
Today must be the day of the dead

Oh Maria

Now that you're all alone do you remember that song?
She woke up singing along Words came quickly but the melody was wrong

Oh Maria is in the pasture
with all the people
running past her

She said if every day's a holy day
today must be the day of the dead

Now that you're all alone, do you remember that song
Just think of me when you're falling asleep
When you wake up you'll be able to dream
