

Still Too Young To Remember

It Bites

Spent the summer dressed in black
Enough to put your back
Against the wall
(Don't you know - Don't you know you know)
There's a woman close at hand
She's with another man
And I'm alone
(Don't you know - Don't you know you know)

Do you remember
Our push against the war... the war
You carried me home and then you
Had to watch the story of life
Of life...

And I'm still too young to remember
(Don't you know, Don't you know you know)
And I'm still too young to remember
(Don't you know, Don't you know you know)

Spent the summer on my own
You give a dog a bone
And he'll come running
(Don't you know, Don't you know you know)
There's a woman in my head
She should be in my bed
And that's not funny
(Don't you know, Don't you know you know)

Do you remember our push against the war
You carried me home and then you
Had to watch the story of life... of life

And I'm still too young to remember
(Don't you know, Don't you know you know)
And I'm still too young to remember
(Don't you know, Don't you know you know)

Leaving by the back door
It's the one in which I came
I stroke the tears upon her cheeks
And they all look the same
Oh boy I'm lonesome
And I'm half way round the bend
And she blows

And I'm still too young to remember
(Don't you know, Don't you know you know)
And I'm still too young to remember
(Don't you know, Don't you know you know)
And I'm still too young to remember
(Don't you know, Don't you know you know)
And I'm still too young to remember
(Don't you know, Don't you know you know)
And I'm still too young to remember
(Don't you know, Don't you know you know)
And I'm still too young to remember

(Don't you know, Don't you know you know)
