

Ain't my Business

Itchy Poopzkid

You are accusing me
of being mean lately that I've been pretending instead of depending on what you say or do I break your heart in two your conversation thing drives me nuts one thing that's crystal clear I'll fail my class this year they tell me what went wrong I say "ok, go on"
that doesn't bother me
I think I'm gonna sleep so would you please leave me alone no time to argue
no time to waste
just leave 'coz I don't care It ain't my business
won't ever be
so nevermind oh yeah
even in my own room
I will be kicked out soon the final warning's told my house already sold no place where I belong no one can tell me wrong there's the door stay outta my life
no time to waste
will never be
