

Faked Identity

Itchy Poopzkid

I saw you standing there well, I cannot explain it you looked like an angel, or like my favorite playmate you stared at me, you smiled at me I wanted to talk to you but then my mom is shouting: get up, it's time for school in my dreams I am a star I could conquer the world the most liked playboy so far but I'm not losing any word no one knows who I really am in my dreams I am superman

I am a hero that no one can see
'coz that's my faked identity

shut up, don't wake me up I wanna be a hero
I hate the reality
I hate to be a zero
I can't stand this hell anymore that's all I really know I'm losing the fight welcome to the horror-show

in my dreams I am a star

no one knows who I really am
I am a hero that no one can see
'coz that's my faked identity
