

Independent

Itchy Poopzkid

every time we look at you we see your failure peaking nothing clear is coming through just your decisions keeping huge disaster right in front time for you to blame us we're the ones blowing up the bomb but now it's time for change 'coz independent we will be the kids on top of you yeah independent big and free we'll fight against this warfare we are worthless your works gold promises every day the words are there just to be told but we will go our own way
