

Please Don't

Itchy Poopzkid

Please don't leave.
Please don't leave me.
Please don't go away from here.

Why did I even kill me
and everything i got?
Why did I get so sick of all I got?

Why did I never wonder if this is what I need?

Why did I never see the love the that filled me?

But now it's all the same again,
I'm all alone again
facing the wall

The mirror's looking at me again,
laughing at me again
"look who you are..."

But it sounds so stupid, this will sound so stupid.

Please don't leave.
Please don't leave me.
Please don't go away from here.

But now i'm back at home again,
everyone's gone again.
Nobody here.

The loneliness comes creeping in to where we've been in.
That's what I fear.
