

Pretty Me

Itchy Poopzkid

2, 3,

Forever and a day on my way on my way

I thought about this for a while here's what I have to say:

I punched a girl in the face pretty fun when I was 5

I got my head kicked by a horse but I am still alive

Sounds like the last thing to be

Is me

My self-confidence grew and I tried to be cool

Jumped from a 10 foot platform but I missed the pool

Then it finally happened what overnight made me a pro

Age 13, front row - maiden show!

Sounds like the last thing to be

Sounds really lame but not to me

It's pretty, pretty, pretty amazing

How the condition became so severe

It's pretty, pretty, awkwardly crazy

How little expertism lives in here

Write a word, sing a note

In the next episode

Pay the rent, what the fuzz?

Ride around in a bus

It's pretty, pretty, pretty amazing to see

How boring it is to be me

Guestlist people keep knocking on the door

Pina colada sipping jaeger dripping on the floor

I look around in my place a thousand things that I prefer

My only luxury item is flavored toilet paper

Sounds like the last thing to be

I got no flatscreen digital super x-y-z

But when I turn the tv on myself is smiling at me

I got no money in the bank and no midget named joe

I got no bitches in my pool but a music video

Sounds like the last thing to be

SoundS really lame but not to me

It's pretty, pretty, pretty amazing

How the condition became so severe

It's pretty, pretty, awkwardly crazy

How little expertism lives in here

Write a word, sing a note

In the next episode

Pay the rent, what the fuzz?

Ride around in a bus

It's pretty, pretty, pretty amazing to see

How boring it is to be me

Don't feel sorry for me

Let's high five and embrace

Because I don't need to

Have a new name and face
I'm alright I'm okay
It's my game that I play
Don't feel sorry for me
Let's high five and embrace
Because I don't need to
Have a new name and face
I'm alright I'm okay
It's my game that I play

Still that it's pretty, pretty, pretty amazing
How the condition became so severe
It's pretty, pretty, awkwardly crazy
How little expertism lives in here
Write a word, sing a note
In the next episode
Pay the rent, what the fuzz?
Ride around in a bus
It's pretty, pretty, pretty amazing to see
How boring it is to be me
