

Take My Hand and Keep Running

Itchy Poopzkid

Painful secrets you got
Ready to share them
All but who is listening?
Who is listening to you?

Voices drill and get so loud
Desperate for help
But it turns out no one's listening
No one's listening
As you try to make it through
Here I'm reaching out to you

The glass is empty and not right
The coins flip on to the wrong side
What is happening?
What is happening to you?

Emptiness in your head
Questions rise but then stop dead
No one's answering
No one's there but carry on
You'll see it's true
When you believe
There's hope for you

Ohhhh life will be waiting
Just take my hand and keep running

Rumours spread like a disease
Home is offering no peace
Cries stay silent

What will happen tomorrow
With today being so low
Nothing's changing
Out of sight but not
By yourself cause I do care
Don't let go just hang in there
