

Watch Us Come Undone

Itchy Poopzkid

One word and it all crashes down
One world falls into pieces at once
Curse all the things you ever said to me
Cause everything was a lie

I start to build a river
Fill it with all the tears that I got
My self-esteem is gonna be my boat
Lift the anchor I'm gone
Collect my bones from the ground
Reject - What are you talking about?
I don't need a fucking reputation
When all you do is reply

I cannot hear you
You cannot hear me
And we keep falling down
Oh, we keep falling down, yeah
I cannot trust you
You cannot trust me
And we keep falling down
Yeah, we keep falling down again

Wipe out all the good memories
No doubt they're like a chronic disease
I'm tired of ineffective medicine
We're used to better pills
Give in - Lay down the weapons
Begin to realize how it is
All that we are is going down the drain
We cannot turn away

I cannot hear you
You cannot hear me
And we keep falling down
Oh, we keep falling down, yeah
I cannot trust you
You cannot trust me
And we keep falling down
Yeah, we keep falling down again

And I never really had a doubt
About what we could become
But everything that is left for us
Is just to watch us come undone

I cannot hear you
You cannot hear me
And we keep falling down
Oh, we keep falling down, yeah
I cannot trust you
You cannot trust me
And we keep falling down
Yeah, we keep falling down again

And I never really had a doubt

But everything that is left for us
Is just to watch us come undone

One word and it all crashes down
One world falls into pieces at once
Curse everything things I ever said to you
Coz if I could I'd deny
