

Winner Takes All

Ivan Král

Don't let her down
she's a butterfly,
don't put her down
she's mine all mine.
Don't point your finger
you don't know her at all, there're so many losers...

She's part of my life
from a distant world,
sometimes she hurts so bad
the pain won't go away.
Say nothing to hurt her
it's not her fault,
so many losers
but the winner takes all.

Say nothing to hurt her
it's not her fault,
so many losers
but the winner takes all.

Give her a chance and she'll prove you're wrong, you walk around in circles with your blindfolds on.
So don't let me catch you
try to make her fall,
so many losers
but the winner takes all.
