

Take Me To The Spirit

Ivanhoe

One step to madness

Easy to see

It's a hard way to follow all things you believe
I know you close your eyes and dream your dreams
But this tragedy drives you insane

My vision is dead, no hope inside
Leading the powers away
My dreams in control, I'm under your spell
This world is not for me

Oh take me to the spirit of my home
Oh will be a safe before the storm

Too many faces. Still know we're blind
A silent scream burning my mind
Memories fade, we've matched so far
To many thoughts in who we are

Feast of the crow - it's burning in me
Face in the flame - and no one would see

The sound of a distant thunder
The dawn of the judgment day
I know you close your eyes and dream your dreams
But this tragedy drives you insane
My vision is dead, no hope inside
Leading the powers away
My dreams in control, I'm under your spell
This world is not for me

Oh take me to the spirit of my home
Oh will be a safe before the storm

Oh take me to the spirit of my home
Oh will be a safe before the storm
