

Vibrations

Ivanhoe

Now you see the water rippling best make sure the boat's not tipping underneath you know there's something the croc is there your heart starts something our boat is rocking to and fro (frightening) sometimes fast some times slow over the edge you can see his head this crocodile, he wants you dead oh one false move that's all it takes the vibrations fill me with panic and fear the beast begins with wild thrashing open jaws huge white teeth gnashing is this the end I ask myself

With tail smashes, in you go now he rolls you very slow the crocodile, me takes you under your smashing bones they sound like thunder the pain is gone - the end is here
