

What If

Ivory Tower

Would a black man let you hunger?

Would a muslim even plunder?

Would all indians kill my trees?

Would polar bears make my land smaller?

Would a child mortgage my future?

Would a lake refuse my right to breathe?

If we exchanged the roles and turned the whole

What if we cared?

What if we were prepared?

Wouldn't all the pain vanish into thin air?

What if we strained. We could part from every chain?

Would a paradise be a guide of life?

Would a fish go angling mankind?

Would spider tread us down?

Would a coral bank drill for oil?

Would a whale eat you for sex drive?

Would a pig fatten you?

Would elephants and tigers cage you up?
