

Be Still And Breathe

Ivoryline

Did you hear me call your name?
Did you hear me call
Or were your thoughts just too loud,
Or were your thoughts just loud enough
For you to miss it.
I thought you'd be listening
A little more intently for me.
But I'll be here when you're ready.
Until then, just be still and breathe.
But I was screaming.
I was screaming.

Everything they said about you
Everything they've known was wrong.
The outside doesn't feel
What the inside knows is real.

Did you see me walking back
Through the same door that I left?
The same door that I left.
Why didn't you stop me if you could, stop me?
There was something that I missed.
Probably cause I didn't want to find it.
I didn't want to find it.
Then came the arguments, now there is silence.
Just be still and breath. Be still and breath.

We're both breathing.

Just walk away and save everything you can.
Just walk away and save anything you can, anything.

Everything they said about you
Everything they've know was wrong.
There's a place that they don't know
And that's where I call my home.
