

You Bring Fire

Ivoryline

I feel a deepening in my soul,
I don't know what's happening, I can't let this go.
And I, oh I am losing control,
I've tried to run away but,

You bring fire,
To my bitter and drafty
Soul, it's time,
I choose your light as my home.

You alone can bring me to my knees,
Where I can exchange all worries
For the peace beyond all understanding,
You know what I mean.

And I, oh I am losing control,
I've tried to run away but,

You bring fire,
To my bitter and drafty
Soul, it's time,
I choose your light as my home.

You bring fire,
To my cold soul.

Keep your love so close,
Until you've bound it with my heart
Everywhere I go,
The sound of it is trapped inside,
Trapped inside, ooh whoa oh.

You bring fire,
To my bitter and drafty
Soul, it's time,
I choose your light as my home.

You bring fire,
To my bitter and drafty
Soul, it's time,
I choose your light as my home.
