

I Don't Wanna Wake Up

Ivy Levan

Drank too much last night
bottles everywhere
woke up in my shoes
whats a girl to do
oh I'm hurtin' like a motha' baby please

I don't wanna wake up
no not today
got all fucked up
I got hell to pay
I don't wanna wake up
no not today
I told you once I told you twice
now let me sleep my blues away

Drank too much last night
I got whiskey in my hair (have mercy) theres a grizzly in my bed a pounding in my head and it's raging like a locomotive

No...
I don't wanna wake up
no not today
got all fucked up
I got hell to pay
I don't wanna wake up
no not today
I told you once I told you twice
now let me sleep my blues away

Hey ladies (yeah)
I need to break this thing down for just one second You ever had one those long long crazy nights and you swear you'd never do it again but you know that shit ain't true

I don't wanna wake up
no not today
got all fucked up
I got hell to pay
no not today
I told you once I told you twice
now let me sleep my blues away
