

By Myself

Ivy

Today I won't be cruel
Though yesterday I walked with you
Through the park and to the lake
What a terrible mistake
I'll be brief
Here it comes with some relief
I'm a waste of time for you
So I'll go back inside my room
I wanna be by myself
I wanna be by myself
I'd make a miserable wife
I'm barely fit to live in my life
One day you'll understand
It was all out of my hands
What can I do if I know
I'm happiest when I'm alone
Don't be sad
It's a problem that I've had
There is nothing left to do
So I'll go back inside my room
I wanna be by myself
I wanna be by myself
I'd make a miserable wife
I'm barely fit to live in my life
I wanna be by myself
I wanna be by myself
I'd make a miserable wife
I'm barely fit to live in my life
