Ocean City Girl

Moving slowly into the setting sun Keeping secrets away from everyone Staring out into another world Tide is rising, but time is standing still

Ocean city girl Is smiling Ocean city girl Is flying

The night is falling; the streetlights start to glow No one's there when the cracks begin to show They can't hurt her like she's been hurt before No one here can get near her anymore
