

Shallow

Ivy

She's in love again, oh yeah
Rise above again, oh yeah
His number's fading on her hand
And it's a day to remember

Shallow, shallow
Shallow, shallow

What an easy game to play
What a perfect thing to say
He tells her 'you're the world to me'
OWhy don't we dive in together'

Shallow, shallow
Shallow, shallow

Sun dies on a beautiful show
Dream on 'cause there's nowhere to go
He'll say what she's wanted to know
Over and over, forever

Shallow, shallow
All we ever had to be
All we ever wanted to be
