

Simple Song

Iwan Rheon

I don't mind
If you leave here tomorrow
If I can hold you tonight
Emptiness in the garden of wanting
If I could hold you tonight

'Cause I've been listening to the radio
And it's been telling me to be alone
But now I'm singing out here on their lawn
Simple song
Please don't ask me why I feel afraid
Take these thoughts and feelings to the grave
Let us laugh and cry it's all the same
Simple song
Prove me wrong

Sleep tonight
On a bed made of promise
Let your hope be your light
Dream tonight
Let each breath fill the darkness
And your love fills your life

'Cause I've been listening to the radio
And it's been telling me to be alone
But now I'm singing out here on their lawn
Simple song
Please don't ask me why I feel afraid
Take these thoughts and feelings to the grave
Let us laugh and cry it's all the same
Simple song
Prove me wrong

I've been listening to the radio
And it's been telling me to be alone
But now I'm singing out here on their lawn
Simple song
Please don't ask me why I feel afraid
Take these thoughts and feelings to the grave
Let us laugh and cry it's all the same
Simple song
Prove me wrong

Oh tonight
See the trees they are turning
While I hold you tonight
