

[Verse 1:]

Listen well It hurts when the only one you love Thinks about another guy and that's all she can think of
She tells you that she loves you
There's no one else above you yet shes spending your dimes wasting your time and she still cant live without you Well well at times she thinks everything's ok
But my feelings up inside are tired of our lovers strife
Days I go without her
Starting to care less about her
Lies after lies just killing me inside
Start a new chapter in my life

[Chorus:]

Shes crazy she says she needs me in her life and more So crazy, girl what you really crying for Shes crazy, she never wana see me runnin through that door
Just thought I let you know that I'm off to let you go

[Verse 2:]

Well every time she thinks about me, emotions getting lazy
She's getting kinda crazy
Burnin up yes feeling kind of hazy
I have to tell my lady if she loves me or she hates me Love a blanc now sipping on some wine wondering if she thinks shes running out of time, for me to be the one for her but me know me cant think coz me know me not sure

[Chorus]

[Verse 2:]

[Chorus:]
