Monday morning comes too early Work my back to the bone All day Monday I keep thinking "Weekend's coming, gonna go home"

Tuesday I hate, oh Tuesday Ain't no girls on the streets Tuesday it ain't good for nothing Drinking beer and watching TV

Friday, Friday evening Come on Friday, it's been too long Friday, Friday evening Come on Friday, I wanna go home

Wednesday's hump day, hump day's Wednesday

Over the hump, the week's half-gone

If I had my pay on Wednesday I'd hang out, the hump day's gone

Thursday, you know I feel better

I can see the end in sight

Think I'll write myself a letter

Help myself through the night

Friday, Friday evening Come on Friday, it's been too long Friday, Friday evening Come on Friday, I wanna go home
