

Low Rider

J. J. Cale

She is my low rider
She is my low rider
Some say she's bad, but she's better than no rider

She carries a .45 on her hip
She takes no bother, she takes no lip
So put your hands on my rider today

She is my low rider
She is my low rider
Some say she's bad, but she's better than no rider

In the morning, I get my kicks
When she shows me all her tricks
A love of mine, you know she's fine, I say

She is my low rider
She is my low rider
Some say she's bad, but she's better than no rider
