Now my gal don't like them red red roses She don't like perfume Now my gal ain't got no fancy notions She just likes to make love all night And sleep all afternoon

Now my gal don't drive no Cadillac car She's got no place to go She's just undecided Fake it through the day "The night time is the right time you know"

She can't sing and she can't dance
She can't walk too well
She can't cook and she can't sew
But boy she can sure raise hell
My my my, She sure gets high
My my my my my
