

Possession

Jace Everett

Everybody watching you
Walking through the door
You don't even notice me
It makes me want you more

The earth is rushing through my veins
Moonlight on the window pane
Lovers moving 'cross the floor
Children waiting to be born

Possession
Nobody owns me
Come and claim it, babe
I'll be your possession

If you don't want me to yourself
What's a boy to do?
I'll be your one and only, girl
I'll be your substitute

Make it dirty, make it clean
Make it quick or make a scene
But why you wanna make me wait?
Hurry baby, don't be late

Possession
Why don't you own me?
Name it and claim it, babe
I'll be your possession

Possession
Come on and own me
Name it and claim it, babe
I'm your possession

The earth is rushing through my veins
Moonlight on the window pane
Lovers moving 'cross the floor
Children waiting to be born

I want you, I need you
I'll be your possession
