

Reason to Believe

Jaci Velasquez

There's something more to this
The stories I have heard
Of senseless apathy
And cases of defeat

The course that we are on
Is treacherous and long
Sometimes it's so unreal
But I know what to feel

We are in need
Of something real
To prove that life is something
Not just nothing

Everybody wants to see
Everyone is here in need
Of the reason to believe
A reason to believe

We all want to rise above
Yeah, we're all in search of love
And the reason to believe
A reason to believe

We're living in an age
Of faith and disbelief
And curiosity
Of how we can be free

The state that we are in
We question everything
But I know what is right
'Cause I can see the light

We are in need
Of something real
To prove that life is something
No, not just nothing

Everybody wants to see
Everyone is here in need
Of a reason to believe
A reason to believe

Yeah, we're all in search of love
And the reason to believe
A reason to believe

Reason to believe
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
A reason to believe

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
A reason to believe
Yeah, yeah
