

The Angel Song

Jaci Velasquez

In the chill of the night
While the moon gently sleeps
I wander in silence
On snow-laden streets
As I gaze into sunsets
Over silhouette mountains
I am amazed that
The God who made all this, made me

As my eyes were open
I began to believe
The mystery of Christmas
Was truly revealed
A great host of angels
Came calling to me
Taking me back to the pure sacred peace

Singing la, la, lalala, lalalala, lalalalalala
There's a savior born to us today
Singing la, la, lalala, lalalala, lalalalalala
The Messiah, Christ the Lord

In the light of the angels
Surrounding my soul
I know for certain
I'm never alone
Now let all of your children
Feel the love that you gave
And in honor of you give it away

Singing la, la, lalala, lalalala, lalalalalala
There's a savior born to us today
Singing la, la, lalala, lalalala, lalalalalala
The Messiah, Christ the Lord
