

Trust In You

Jaci Velasquez

I used to think that I'd be better off
If I could only know the end result I used to ask you why, and hang my head and cry
As if you never catch me when I fall

Everyone's afraid
When the winds start blowing
But they're just winds of change

All I need to know
Is you're in control
And you know just what to do
I don't need to see
What I really need
Is a little more trust in you

It's hard to face my fear and let it go
When these seeds of faith have turned to stone
If I could just believe, I'd throw this mountain to the sea
And on this path I never walk alone

Everyone's afraid
When the wind starts blowing
But you're always the same

I'm reaching out, take my hand
Saviour please rescue me
I'll make it through and follow you
And I will believe
All I can do is trust in you...
