

All Weekend Long

Jack & Jack

We are the future
Jack, yeah
Come on

Have you ever watched the sunrise
Rosé in your hand
Toes up in the sand
Yeah, yeah
Have you ever stayed up all night
Rollin' round the hills
Can't believe it's real, oh
I think we should get along
Course you do
Maybe we could kick it girl
Maybe that could be a thing
I think we should get along
Maybe we could get together

All weekend long
All weekend long
We getting gone
All weekend long
All weekend long
We goin' strong
All weekend long
Do what we want
All weekend long
Do what we want
All weekend long
Til the next one comes
Til the next one comes
Til the next one comes
Til the next one comes
Til the next one

All weekend long we be up we be on
We be poppin' these bottles we off that strong
Lit for tonight cuz what if it don't come, yeah
What if tomorrow don't come
And what if sun doesn't rise in the morning
And that's my excuse why I sip this patron
Just wanna get loose and get lifted and gone
I might just go til my vision is gone gone gone
And when you come around
The women the liquor it's all top shelf
We did it independent all by ourselves
And we ain't gonna stop til the times out, nah nah nah
What's goin' down
This weekend let's find out, let's find out
What's goin' down (what)
This weekend let's find out

All weekend long
All weekend long
We getting gone
All weekend long
All weekend long

We goin' strong
All weekend long
Do what we want
All weekend long
Do what we want
All weekend long
Til the next one comes

I ain't gotta worry it's the weekend
Imma turn up I don't need a reason
I ain't gotta worry it's the weekend
Imma turn up I don't need a reason
Imma turn up I don't need a reason
I ain't gotta worry it's the weekend
Imma turn up

All weekend long
All weekend long
We getting gone
All weekend long
All weekend long
We goin' strong
All weekend long
Do what we want
All weekend long
Do what we want
All weekend long
Til the next one comes
