

Last Thing

Jack & Jack

That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want, oh baby
That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want
Can we just leave the expectations at the door
No stipulations
Say it again
That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want

Tryna get hurt
Is you tryna draw blood
Wanna be responsible for dragging our hearts through the mud
If we got a connection
Why you tryna pull the plug
Do you want that negative energy placed on us

All of these questions gon' ask why
All these emotions don't sit right
No, we don't need complications for you and me
Don't say them words

That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want, oh baby
That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want
Can we just leave the expectations at the door
No stipulations
Say it again
That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want

Yeah, yeah
Yeah, I just wanna have a good time with you
Baby, tell me why did you said what you just said
I ain't gon' lie, it's kinda makin' me upset
Those three words back to back to back, fuck that
Cuz I ain't tryna get much deeper than the surface
Yeah that's why I snorkel instead of scuba diving in the ocean
Let it be known that I'm hopeless when it comes to romance
Like damn, there's no need to slow dance, no ma'am
Groove with me
Up tempo
Let loose with me
Get up out your feelings out your blues with me
Your body language's so beautiful I'm perusing it
And I ain't tryna take it to a new limit, baby no

All of these questions gon' ask why
All these emotions don't sit right
No, we don't need complications for you and me
Don't say them words

That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want, oh baby
That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want

Can we just leave the expectations at the door
No stipulations
Say it again
That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want

Who holds your feelings, babe
Don't make it difficult, no
Don't be expecting that
Expecting the same thing from me, no
We ain't gonna let each other down now
Each other down now, no
Just as long as you're right here with me
Don't say them words

That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want, oh baby
That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want
Can we just leave the expectations at the door
No stipulations
Say it again
That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
That's the last thing that I want
That's the last thing that I want

Don't be saying the words
Don't you just say the words I don't wanna hear
I don't wanna hear, I don't wanna hear
Don't just say them words I don't wanna hear
Don't you say the fucking words
Don't you say them words, don't you say them words
Don't you say them words, don't you say them words
Don't you say them words, don't you say them words
