

Sentenced

Jack Frost

it is life's will things come down on me
you know everyday
I try to leave

how dare you
be part of me
I wish you
get rid of me

it's my mind's dream
to be far away
I'm sentenced to life
in endless grief

[Chorus:]
the one to lose am I
oh how I wish to die
all your pain is mine
until the end of my time

belong to me
I'm slave to you
eternally
