

Sink

Jack Frost

I see the sun in your eyes when I drown in your arms and sink in the dark
in these dead sands
of an unknown shore

I see the sun in your soul as I die in your arms
and I see you descending
into silent suicide
on your lost shore

black sun dawning in
your soul
hollow soul

you see the sun in my eyes when you're fucking my soul and you stifle my life
with this shallow sands that know nothing for sure

into silent suicide

your soul
hollow soul

into silent suicide
on your lost shore
