

Ever Since My Baby Went Away

Jack Greene

(Ever since my baby went away)
Haven't seen a moonbeam
Haven't heard a robin sing
Ever since my baby went away

Haven't slept one single night
Wondering if she's all right
Ever since my baby went away

I'll walk alone 'till she returns, I miss her tender kiss
I cry when I'm alone, I'm not brave enough, I guess
Wanna kiss that pretty face, home has been a lonely place
Ever since my baby went away

I'll walk alone 'til she returns
