

You're Mine

Jack Greene

I won't say that I'm the only one who loved you
I can't say I make you happy all the time
There's someone you can't forget you never will and yet
As far as my heart's concerned you're mine
You never once have told me that you need me
And you forget with I'm around you sometimes
There are words I try to say when you turn and walk away
But as far as my heart's concerned you're mine
You're mine and yet I know someday I'll lose you
But you can't take this happiness I've found
I know it may sound foolish when I tell you that I'm satisfied just having you around
Even when you're in my arms I know you're lonely
Wish that I could take that someone all to mine
But it seems you can't forget you never will and yet
As far as my heart's concerned you're mine
