Heading Home

Jack Johnson

Try to sell somethin' that just can't be bought Said it's the latest and the greatest but I know that it's not

Be somebody you don't wanna be Didn't even exist last year but now it's what we need

Oh no not me, oh no not me 'Cuz I'm headin' home (2x)

Try to tell them somethin' that should never be taught I guess it wont be great around here when they're born

Once it's really gone then it's really gone for good Just because you can doesn't mean that you should

Oh no, not here, oh no not now 'Cuz I'm headin' home (2x)

You gotta go somewhere ya never gone Sing something that ya never sung Think about something that ya never thought

And if you're gonna give, give everything you got

Headin' home, baby
