

No One Lied

Jack Peñate

I'm so happy, think I could cry
Then the moment is lost to the sky
In the silence something is heard
Brings us back down crashing to earth

Heaven is a place
No one lied
It's rushing through your veins
Flooding your eyes

She's so worried the end is in sight
She could stay there for the rest her life
A peculiar pain within her arose
As the perfect frame couldn't be froze

Heaven is a place
No one lied
It's rushing through your veins
Flooding your eyes
It's hidden in your brain
The sweetest surprise

We'll be gone soon

Heaven is a place
No one lied
It's rushing through your veins
Flooding your eyes
It's hidden in your brain
The sweetest surprise
The mystery remains
Until we die
