

My Racing Thoughts

Jack's Mannequin

She's a black cat hanging 'round my doorstep.
I'll need all day tomorrow to recover from today.
I was boxing with my shadow at a stoplight when the clocks changed. (Yeah)
It was midnight I was mixed up when she called to drag the lake

I think I'm running short on inspiration, she's running long on borrowed
Time,
We break with speed, that girl can read my racing thoughts.
She asks the questions, I take the floor, she takes her shots.
Taught her a lesson (Whoaohh) about a forced confession (Whoaohh)
We break with speed, that girl can read my racing thoughts...
My racing thoughts... My racing thoughts...

So I'll try to keep her steady now but steady's not her strong suit.
I was raised going to church, but couldn't practice what they preached.
So I'm hiring a DJ for the eve of our destruction (Yeah)
It was midnight I was mixed up when she found me on the beach

I think I'm running low on inspiration, she's running long on borrowed
Time,
We break with speed, that girl can read my racing thoughts.
She asks the questions, I take the floor, she takes her shots.
Taught her a lesson (Whoaohh) about a forced confession (Whoaohh)
We break with speed, that girl can read my racing thoughts...
My racing thoughts... My racing thoughts...

Mhhmhhhhmm mhhhhmm mhhhhmm...

I think I'm running short on inspiration, she's running long on borrowed
Time,
We break with speed, that girl can read my racing thoughts.
She asks the questions, I take the floor, she takes her shots.
Taught her a lesson (Whoaohh) about a forced confession (Whoaohh)
We break with speed, that girl can read my racing thoughts...
My racing thoughts... My racing thoughts...

My racing thoughts... My racing thoughts... My racing thoughts.

(She can read my, she can read my, she can read my racing thoughts)

Whooooaaaooohhh... Ohhh

(She can read my, she can read my, she can read my racing thoughts)

Whooooaaaooohhh... Ohhh

(She can read my, she can read my, she can read my racing thoughts)
