

Restless Dream

Jack's Mannequin

I write you from this grounded airplane
I wonder how you've been and where you are
A letter to the one who slipped away
A letter for the things that never start

Oh my imagination's running wild
Guess I've missed you from the day we first met
Crazy, this fascination makes us sound
Like a twister in my mind
Restless dream we left behind I never will forget

It's funny how the words we never say
Can turn into the only thoughts we know
But austin's just so very far away
And I can not believe I let you go

Oh my imagination's running wild
Guess I've missed you from the day we first met
Crazy, this fascination makes us sound
Like a twister in my mind
Restless dream we left behind
I never will forget this restless dream

And so I call to you from the darkness of my room
You will never be a memory now your restless dream
Your restless dream

So I write to this address I don't know
You said you had to leave and we lost track
So if you hear this song on the radio
I've said it now and there's no turning back

Oh my imagination's running wild
Guess I've missed you from the day we first met
Crazy, this fascination makes us sound
Like a twister in my mind
Restless dream we left behind
I never will forget this restless dream
This restless dream
