

And The Band Played

Jackie Boyz

Ohh what a sound, almost clear, closer every end and now
That you gone, my pride, for a broken heart to hear is Something I can't help I'm addicted to, everytime she walks, can hear when s he talks

Is something I don't want but I have to do, let you go, I got to let you go

If you got something in your heart you need to let it out, let it out
If you love someone, let him go, you know just what I'm talking about, talki ng about

Even though it hurts to speak

Let the song, test the heart, let the drum like the spark
Let the hole feel the need, have you all, sets you free

And the band played
And the band played
And the band played
And the band played
And the band played

Cloudes touches the sky from the tears, that run and cross your face and talk Cause I know, that you gone, there is nothing that can save us, See I already know what I have to do, walk away from this, I wish I got one last kiss

I keep your picture by my beds side
I can't lie I'm learning for you
If you got something in your heart you need to let it out, let it out
If you love someone, let him go, you know just what I'm talking about, talki ng about
Even though it's killing me

Let the song, test the heart, let the drum like the spark
Let the hole feel the need, have you all, sets you free

And the band played (on)
And the band played (on)
And the band played (on)
And the band played (on)
And the band played (on)

My heart is bleeding at the fact that I can't have you right here next to me
So I take the stand and watch cause I know that I got to set you free
No more dumless now, I suffered like this shit for the whole world to see, w orld to see, you and me, you and me, listening to

Ohhhhhhh ohhhhhhh ohhhhhhh ohhhhhhhhh
Ohhhhhhhhh ohhhhhhh ohhhh

Let the song, tell you're heart, let the drum like the spark
Let the hole feel the need, have you all, sets you free

And the band played (on)
And the band played (on)
And the band played (on)
And the band played (on)
