

Breaking Up

Jackie Boyz

I know she saw a smell on my face
One look at me away, now I'm sitting here wondering Should I tell her, should I tell her?
I always wanted to be the guy that would never tell you a lie
Cause my heart can't see you cry, oh no, oh no
But then I met this girl, pretty little girl,
Came out of nowhere... unfair, for you my baby, and I really go tta let you know
I'm having second thoughts when I'm with you
But when I think about what we've been through
Our love is never easy baby, the hardest part is breaking up
I wish we never ran one to another I missed you... go further
I wish that it was easy babe, but the hardest part is breaking
up with you
The hardest part is breaking up with you

It would hurt more if I stayed, so I better get out the way
Then to see your heart just fade, oh no, oh no
Don't wanna break up, make up and do it all again
I'd rather leave you knowing that we can be just friends
Oh yeah, my baby, I wish it was different

But then I met this girl, pretty little girl,
Came out of nowhere... unfair, for you my baby, and I really go
tta let you know
I'm having second thoughts when I'm with you
But when I think about what we've been through
Our love is never easy baby, the hardest part is breaking up
I wish we never ran one to another I missed you... go further
I wish that it was easy babe, but the hardest part is breaking
up with you.
