

No More

Jackie Boyz

Hey, let me talk to you baby

Hurting you no more, I just, I can't,
I just can't be hurting you no more,
You love me more than I love myself.
Hurting you no more, I just, I can't,
I just can't be hurting you no more,
You love me more than I love myself.

I'll just admit I'm going wrong, out every day,
Don't even answer when you call,
And that just ain't right,
Now I can say a million things,
For you to not walk away,
So let me tell me you how I feel, ooh.

All those nights in the studio
I left you home all alone, hey
So it's better that I let you go.

Hurting you no more, I just, I can't,
I just can't be hurting you no more,
You love me more than I love myself.
Hurting you no more, I just, I can't,
I just can't be hurting you no more,
You love me more than I love myself.

Girl I don't even know no other way,
That even make you wanna stay
Look at the things that I've put you through,
Just know that this wasn't meant for you,
And I'm so sorry girl.

Hurting you no more, I just, I can't,
I just can't be hurting you no more,
You love me more than I love myself.
Hurting you no more, I just, I can't,
I just can't be hurting you no more,
You love me more than I love myself.

If I knew then what I know now
I wouldn't have been so steady sleeping around
Forget me if I'm being too honest
I can't keep telling lies,
You're too beautiful to keep hurting,
I just wanna see you smile.

Hurting you no more, I just, I can't,
I just can't be hurting you no more,
You love me more than I love myself.
Hurting you no more, I just, I can't,
I just can't be hurting you no more,
You love me more than I love myself.
