

Worth Fighting For

Jackie Boyz

Oh oh oh oooo
It came so quickly love knocked me over
And now found it there no letting go
I got u baby as long as u got me
Just know it gonna get harder before get easy
We go through storm whether the pain I'm alway right here
They can tear down the walls break down and cry I'm always righ t here

Cause cause I rather lose my life then lose your love
I rather go to war then give you up
Your worth fighting for your worth fighting for
And I really don't know the worse I am I rather take my chances swing
Your worth fighting for your worth fighting for oh oh

I, ll be your strongest soldier I, ll protect you
If I'm wounded you better be there taking care of me ooo
People say it rare to find what we share
That why I put all of me in to this
We go through storm whether the pain I'm alway right here
They can tear down the walls break down and cry I'm always righ
t here

Cause cause I rather lose my life then lose your love
I rather go to war then give you up
Your worth fighting for your worth fighting for And I really do n't know the worse I am I rather take my chances swing
Your worth fighting for your worth fighting for oh oh
