

Don't Let The Flame Burn Out

Jackie DeShannon

You gave me something
I never had
And, baby, I can feel
The change in me

But you can't say
How long you'll stay around
I guess I'll just have
To wait and see

Nobody said it was easy
To get the love that you need
But the one who is giving
Is the one who receives

Oh, baby, don't let
Don't let the flame burn out
Cause light's a sweet emotion

Don't let, don't let
The flame burn out
Words are softly spoken

Don't let, don't let
The flame burn out
Hearts are lost and stolen

Don't let it burn out
Don't let it burn out
Don't let it burn out

I know I'm helpless
Where you're concerned
I see the danger that lies ahead

There's so many reasons
You're on my mind
Should I believe
The things you say

Oh, honey, don't let
Don't let the flame burn out
You're the one and only

Don't let, don't let
The flame burn out
I need you to hold me

Don't let, don't let
The flame burn out
When you're away, I'm lonely

Don't let it burn out
Don't let it burn out
Don't let it burn out

No, no, don't

Don't let the flame burn out
Ooh, honey, don't

Don't let it

Don't let it burn out
