

Your Love

Jackie Evancho

I woke and you were there beside me in the night.
You touched me and calmed my fear, turned darkness into light.

I woke and saw you there beside me as before My heart leapt to find you near to feel you close once more To feel your love once more.

Your strength has made me strong Though life tore us apart and now when the night seems long your love shines in my heart...
Your love shines in my heart.
