

The Lord Mistreats Me

Jackie Greene

Well I woke up this morning found a note tied to my bed baby's gone and left me, oh that's what she said and the fire's gone I swear the lord mistreat me and the devil done did me wrong it's hot as hell in the summer but all I feel is rain she bought herself a ticket all on down the train oh it's a lonesome song I swear the lord mistreats me

girls will be girls and boys will be boys I just want to drink a bottle of wine go to town and make some noise
and the fires gone
