Sunset

Jackie Lomax

Sunset in slow, no place to go Just sitting home and Im dreaming The shade of our love that Im thinking of Like the sun above, is now fading And I feel like Im dead Theres a pain here in my head Oh and Ive never never felt so all alone

And now you see, now that Im free Dont want to be on my own The love that we had, now turning bad Is now clad in sunset And I feel like Im dead Theres a pain here in my head And Ive never never felt so all alone

And I feel like Im dead Theres a pain in my head And Ive never never felt so all alone

Well now I hear people say, well thats the way Happens every day, son, you aint no exception Well now its all right for them, theyll love again Theyre going to find their own direction But me, I feel like Im dead Theres a pain in my head And Ive never never never felt so alone And Ive never felt so alone
