

It's Too Late to Change the Time

Michael Jackson

Too Late

Too Late

Too Late

In this almighty cage

We shop through the yellow page

Gone is the corner store

There is a supermarket there for you

But feelings remain the same

And it's too late, too late to change the time

Well it's too late, too late to change the time

And it's too late, too late to change the time

But it's not too late to change your mind (too late)

It's a new day, a new age

A photograph is taken, its ready one minute later

Cars are bigger and better

Manufacture satisfy

Any world full of crime

I can't let you take

And it's too late, too late to change the time

And it's too late, too late to change the time

And it's too late, too late to change the time

But it's not too late to change your mind (too late)

No, no

So you want to be a star

I think you are

You don't have to go further

Then my loving arms

And it's too late, too late to change the time

But it's not too late (too late) to change your mind

Are you sure you want to go to New York City (New York City)

Where girls make it big if their pretty (if their pretty)

Let say you get that penthouse view

But whose gonna love you the way I do (just the way I do)

It's too late, too late to change the time

And it's too late, too late to change the time

No, too late, too late to change the time

But it's not too late (too late) to change your mind

Yea, yea, yea

And it's too late, too late to change the time

It's too late, too late to change the time

Ooh, too late, too late to change the time

But it's not too late (too late) to change your mind

Yea, yea, yea

Too late, too late
