

I Stand Alone

Jackyl

Well every time I move, every step I make
You know I just can't seem to take the right direction
I'm always wrong, I'm never right
Right or wrong there always seems to be a correction

And I give everything I got
And they take, take, take, take, take everything, everything I'm giving
My back is tired, my legs both ache
In this life there is no cake, this life I'm livin'

I stand alone today
Why you feel? Don't ask me why I feel
I just know I feel this way
What you say? I stand alone today
I stand alone today
Why you feel? Don't ask me why I feel
I just know I feel this way
What you say? I stand alone today

Well you look at me shake your head
Don't like my hair you're so misled I shit like you do
If the curse is more than on my head
Sometimes I think I'm better off dead it's worse than voodoo, yeah

And I'm reaching out for help
But it's no, no, no, no, no until you give in
My back's still tired my legs both ache
In this life there is no cake this life I'm livin'

I stand alone today
Why you feel? Don't ask me why I feel
I just know I feel this way
What you say? I stand alone today
I stand alone today
Why you feel? Don't ask me why I feel
I just know I feel this way
What you say? I stand alone today

Well they take, they take everything I'm givin'
It's a rough life this life I'm livin'
Give me more give me more I take more everyday
I'm gonna take it till they take, take, take, take
Take, take, take, take me away

I stand alone today
Why you feel? Don't ask me why I feel
I just know I feel this way
What you say? I stand alone today
I stand alone today
Why you feel? Don't ask me why I feel
I just know I feel this way
What you say? I stand alone today

I say I, I stand alone today, I say I, I, I stand alone today
I say I, I stand alone today, I say I, I, I stand alone today
I say I
