

Kill The Sunshine

Jackyl

Full moon rise, fear filled skies
Delicious evil in her bloodshot eyes
Heart beats loud, to the bone
One way ticket, never comin' home

I got to kill all the sunshine
'Cause, I'm the king of the nightttime
The Lord of your lifeline and darkness is divine
So kill all the sunshine

Set your clock, start your chime
Come midnight, we'll celebrate that your mine
Feel the fire my touch
You're gonna get the thing that you wanted so much

I got to kill all the sunshine
'Cause, I'm the king of the nightttime
The Lord of your lifeline and darkness is divine
So kill all the sunshine
